

PART 3: Set in Motion

DATE: 11-21-2021

START

There are things in life that we are for and against. Some of those things make us different from others and some of those things we hold in common with others. And there are some things that are unique about us. These uniquenesses allow us to add depth and diversity to the groups of people that we interact with.

- What are some things you are for?
- What makes you unique?
- How does your uniqueness add depth to the people you interact with?

READ

1 Peter 4:7-8 (NIV)

“The end of all things is near. Therefore be alert and of sober mind so that you may pray. Above all, love each other deeply, because love covers over a multitude of sins.”

THINK

Peter urges us to be alert so that we can pray. Pray for peace, pray for one another, pray for healing, pray for what is on our hearts. The idea is that we are alert to what is going around us so that we can pray and seek God’s guidance. And above all, let us make sure that loving each other is at the center of it all.

- How do you remain alert to what is going on in the lives of people around you?
- How can you pray for others this week?
- What action steps of loving each other can you take this week?

As we pray and love each other it strengthens our relationship with Jesus. It continues to draw us closer to Him and shapes our lives to be more like Him. By doing this we are able to further treat people with kindness and set into motion a life that points people to Jesus.

- How does your life reflect your relationship with Jesus?
- How do you need to show hospitality to someone this week?
- What will your achievements be in your lifetime?

PRAY

“God, help me to be alert and pray often for the things in my life and the lives of others. Continue to form my heart so that I can love and show hospitality to those around me, and let my relationship with you form my life to point other people to you.”

ACT

This week, as we head into our Christmas series. We have the amazing opportunity to show love and hospitality by inviting people to come and hear the hope that we have in Jesus. Take a step and invite someone to sit with you at church during the Christmas season.
