PART 4: Song of Hope

DATE: 12-19-2021

START

Trust takes time to build. We trust those that fulfill promises and do what they say they will do. We trust people who keep our conversations confidential and who check in with us when times are tough. The list of people we don't trust is probably long and the list of people we do trust is probably short.

- What do you look for in someone you trust?
- How do you show trust in relationships?
- What do you find difficult about trusting God?

READ

Luke 1:77-79 (NIV)

“You will tell his people how to find salvation through forgiveness of their sins. Because of God’s tender mercy, the morning light from heaven is about to break upon us, to give light to those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, and to guide us to the path of peace.”

THINK

In Zechariah’s song, he ensures us that God will do what He says He will do. Knowing God will do what He says He will do can fill us with trust and hope no matter what we are facing. As we live in this trust and hope and can be confident that we belong to God and live our lives accordingly.

- How is your relationship with God formed by your trust in Him?
- What do you need to give over to God to trust Him more?

When we live our life with trust in God, He moves us to be a blessing to others. Being a blessing to others doesn't have to be hard. It can simply be inviting someone to Christmas Eve services, or simply being a friend to someone in need.

- Who do you need to invite to a Christmas Eve service at TCC?
- How can you be a blessing to someone this Christmas season?

PRAY

“God help me to continue to trust you in leading me where I should go.”

ACT

This week, put trust into action by inviting someone to a Christmas Eve service at TCC.
